Published by Authority.

From Thursday July 5. to Saturday July 8. 1712.

Whitehall, July 4.

HER Majesty has been Graciously pleased to Sign a Warrant for creating the Right Honourable Henry St. John, Esq; One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, a Peer of Great Britain, by the Stile and Title of Viscount Bullingbrooke, and Baron St. John of Lidiard Tregoze, in the County of Wilts.

The following humble Address from the Borough of Leeds, was presented to Her Majesty by John Atkinson, Esq; Mayor, being introduced by His Grace the Duke of Leeds.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common-Council, Clergy, Gentlemen, Merchants, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Leeds, in the West-Riding of the County of York.

Most Gracious Sovereign!

WITH all Humility and Satisfaction, we own it to be the undoubted Right and Prerogative of the Crown to make Peace and War, and willingly concur with our Representatives in Parliament, in returning our hearty Thanks to Your Majesty, for Your great Condescension, in laying before Your People the Terms upon which a Peace may be made.

Your Good Subjects are not insensible of the Difficulties which must attend the settling an Affair of this Consequence, neither were we surprized to hear, that there have been artful Contrivances to obstruct Your Gracious Intentions; but as none of these could move Your Majesty from a steady pursuit of so good a Work, so neither did they create any Diffidence in us, when we considered the Piety and Prudence of that Queen, whom God has always so peculiarly distinguished with his Blessings, and the Vigilance and Integrity of those whom Your Majesty, in Your Princely Wisdom, is pleased to employ.

Your Majesty's principal Regard for the Security and continuance of the Protestant Succession, Your tender Care and Concern for the Interest of Your own Subjects, and the reasonable Satisfaction which You propose for all Your Allies; as they are all the Advantages we could hope for, so the obtaining of them must be a good Occasion of Joy to every Loyal, Well-minded English Man.

These are Blessings which all Your Majesty's Subjects must Share in; but we, in a particular Manner, of this Populous and Trading Borough, having already found the good Effects of them, in the sensible Increase of our Trade, since the first Commencement of this happy Negotiation.

May God Almighty enable You to bring this great Undertaking to a speedy and successful Issue; may all Your Subjects shew their Obedience, by a hearty Concurrence with Your Majesty, and may You and Your People long enjoy the happy Effects of a lasting Peace.

The following Address from the City of Gloucester, was presented to Her Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort, their Lord-Lieutenant.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humblee Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of Glouceſter, in Common-Council Assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign!

WE do with all Grateful Hearts and Dutiful Affection, humbly beg leave to approach Your Sacred Majesty, with our Congratulations for the Success that has attended Your Majesty's Endeavours for a General Peace, and applaud Your great Goodness and Condescension, in communicating to Your Parliament the Terms on which the same may be had, notwithstanding it is the undoubted Right and Prerogative of the Crown to make Peace and War. We also humbly express our joyful Satisfaction in Your Majesty's most wise and tender Care for the good of Your Kingdoms, as well in the Security of the Protestant Succession in the House of Hanover, as Restoring Peace to all Europe; we entirely confide in Your Majesty, to proceed and compleat so great a Blessing, and doubt not by Your great Wisdom and Prudence, a Peace will be speedily settled, Glorious to Your Majesty, Honourable to Your Ministers, Advantageous and Happy to Your People and Allies.

May Heaven bless Your Majesty with long Life and Happiness, to Govern Your Kingdoms in Peace and Prosperity, and enable You to perfect those other great Things You design for Your Subjects, in making them a flourishing People in Commerce and Trade.

The following Address from the Borough of Portsmouth, was presented to Her Majesty by Mr. Bissell, Mayor of the said Borough, who had the Honour of kissing Her Majesty's Hand, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Southampton.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Portsmouth.

Most Gracious Sovereign!

WE humbly beg leave to approach Your Majesty, to express our hearty and sincere Gratitude for the Care You have been pleased to take to secure the Protestant Succession in the Illustrious House of Hanover, and the Government (of Your Majesty's Kingdoms) as by Law Established in Church and State.

We stedfastly believe that Your Majesty will (notwithstanding the artful Contrivances of some) procure a safe and honourable Peace.

We beseech Your Majesty to accept of our unfeigned Thanks for Your Majesty's late Royal Favour, in restoring this Corporation to its antient Rights and Privileges, and to permit us to assure Your Majesty, That we will on all Occasions oppose that Restless and Factious Party, which (as late Experience hath shewn) want not a Will to raise Jealousies between Your Majesty and Your Subjects, (by misrepresenting Your good Intentions for the Welfare of all Your People) and to take from Your Sacred Person the Power of making Peace and War, the undoubted Prerogative of the Crown.

The

The following Addreſs from the City of Lincoln, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Thomas Liſter, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Commonalty of the antient City of Lincoln.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal Subjects, with Hearts exalted with Joy and Admiration, do with the moſt profound Dutifulneſs Congratulate Your Majeſty upon Your ſurpriſing and moſt excellent Management of the Terms of a general Peace, in which Your Majeſty has gloriouſly diſtinguiſhed Your Self, holding the Ballance of Europe; and as the greateſt Share of the Charges of the Confederate War did redound from Your Majeſty and Your Kingdoms, ſo the chiefeſt part of the Conduct of the Peace is with the higheſt Honour owing to Your Majeſty's unwearied Endeavours for procuring the ſame.

We alſo with extraordinary Satisfaction admire with what Conſtancy and heroick Reſolution Your Majeſty proceeded in this great Work, notwithſtanding the reſtleſs Endeavours of Perſons of perverſe and diſloyal Principles at Home, and the diſreſpectful and ungrateful Treatment from Perſons Abroad, who leſſen Your Majeſty's Grandeur, by extolling the Power and Intereſt of Foreign States, and who do envy Your Majeſty what You moſt juſtly deſerve, the Title of Head and Life of the Confederate Allies.

We Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal Subjects, out of a true Senſe of our bounden Duty, do ſincerely own Your Majeſty's moſt undoubted Prerogative of making War and Peace, and with much Pleaſure have in remembrance Your Majeſty's gracious Condeſcenſion in laying the Terms of Peace before Your Parliament; which Terms, ſo advantageous, muſt be gratefully acknowledged by Your Subjects to be for the Honour and Security of the Crown and the Proteſtant Succeſſion thereof, and for the Enlargement and Protection of the Trade of Your Majeſty's Kingdoms.

May the Almighty God bleſs Your Majeſty with Health and long Life, and proſper all Your Undertakings, eſpecially in finiſhing this great and glorious Work of a General Peace, to Your Majeſty's immortal Renown, to the Satisfaction of the Allies, and to the Welfare and Proſperity of all Your Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Marlborough, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Honourable Robert Bruce, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Chamberlain.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The Humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Marlborough in the County of Wilts.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

YOUR Majeſty's mild and glorious Reign, ſince Your happy Acceſſion to the Hereditary Throne of Your Anceſtors, leaves Your Subjects no Happineſs to wiſh for, but the Bleſſings of Peace.

Your Gracious Condeſcenſion in communicating to Your Parliament the Terms on which a firm and laſting Peace may be obtained, requires our humbleſt Acknowledgments, and moſt grateful Thanks.

The farther aſſuring of the Proteſtant Succeſſion on the Houſe of Hanover; the Care You are pleaſed to take of thoſe of the Reformed Religion Abroad; the fixing a real Ballance of Power in Europe; Your having omitted nothing which might procure to all Your Allies, what is due to them by Treaties, and what is neceſſary for their Security, the reſtoring and increaſing of the Britiſh Commerce, and even extending it to Places it has never yet reach'd; Your prudent choice of Miniſters of Underſtanding, Fidelity and Courage, equal to the great Truſt You are pleaſed to repoſe in them, and to the Difficulties You have to ſtruggle with, are ſo many real and undeniable Proofs, that You ſteadily purſue the true Intereſt of Your Church and Kingdoms.

God Almighty preſerve Your Sacred Perſon from all Your open and ſecret Enemies, from Faction and Sedition, and long continue a Life ſo Glorious to Your Self, and ſo ineſtimably Precious to Your People.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Taunton, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir William Wyndham, Bar. being introduced by the Right Hon. Mr. Secretary St. John.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy-Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of Your antient Borough of Taunton, in the County of Somerſet.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE with all Humility and Duty approach Your Sacred Majeſty, to return our moſt grateful Acknowledgments for Your Majeſty's Gracious Condeſcenſion, in communicating to Your Parliament the Terms that France hath been brought to, for the Concluſion of a General Peace.

Your Majeſty's tranſcendent Goodneſs appears in every Article of the Propoſals, in that You have been pleaſed to purſue with ſuch Care and Tenderneſs, the Honour, Safety, Commerce, and other Advantages of Your own Kingdoms, the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Houſe of Hanover, as by Law Eſtabliſh'd, and the Satisfaction of Your Allies, according to the ſeveral Treaties Your Majeſty is engaged in to them. But what is moſt to be admired is, that Your Majeſty hath overcome all theſe Difficulties, notwithſtanding the artful Endeavours of a Set of Men, who through Faction, or Intereſt, or both, have uſed their utmoſt Efforts to obſtruct a Peace.

Madam,

We do acknowledge with all Submiſſion, that the making Peace and War is the undoubted Prerogative of the Crown, we therefore humbly beſeech Your Sacred Majeſty, that You would be pleaſed to finiſh the Glorious and Good Work which Your great Wiſdom hath ſo far advanced; and that You may live long to enjoy the Bleſſings of ſo ſafe and honourable a Peace, are the ſincere and hearty Prayers of Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Boſſiny, was preſented to Her Majeſty by John Manley and Henry Campion, Eſqs; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Lanſdowne; and Mr. Manley and Mr. Campion had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUENE's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble and unanimous Addreſs of the Mayor and Free Burgeſſes of the Borough of Boſſiny and Trevena, in Tintagell, in the County of Cornwall.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

THE bright Dawn of an approaching honourable and advantageous Peace, which Your Majeſty (out of Your unexampled Condeſcenſion) has been graciouſly pleaſed to lay before Your Two Houſes of Parliament, fills our Loyal Hearts with unſpeakable Joy, and the higheſt Senſe of Your Majeſty's great Wiſdom, and unwearied Care for Your People, notwithſtanding the obſtinate Endeavours of a Sett of Men (poiſoned by a Factious Ambition) to obſtruct Your Royal Intentions, and thoſe of Your Faithful and Able Miniſtry, for the Welfare of Your Kingdoms, and the true Intereſt of Your Allies.

We humbly beſeech Your Majeſty to go on and perfect the good Work You have thus ſo happily begun; and entirely depend on Your Majeſty's Care for the Security

Security of the Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, and all other Things that may tend to the Benefit of Your Subjects, and the continuance of our preſent happy Eſtabliſhment in Church and State.

All which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Petersburg, June 18. N. S. The Tenth of this Month being the Czar's Birth-day, when he enter'd on the Forty ſecond Year of his Age, his Majeſty received the Compliments of the Nobility, and gave them an Entertainment in the Evening in his Garden at the end of the Town. On the Eleventh a Courier arrived here from Conſtantinople, with Letters dated the Sixth of May, bringing an Account that the Turks reſolved to obſerve the Treaty they had lately confirmed; and were preparing to ſend the King of Sueden Home through Poland, with a Convoy as ſoon as the Conditions for ſecuring his Paſſage could be adjuſted.

Lisbon, June 24. N. S. Two thouſand of the Enemy attempted, on the Seventeenth Inſtant, to take Arrouches by Eſcallade, but the Garriſon, conſiſting only of Three hundred Men, took away their Ladders, and repulſed them with the Loſs of Forty Men.

Venice, June 24. N. S. They write from Rome, that the Pope was ſtill at Caſtle Gondolpho, and intended to viſit the Port of Nettuno. The Differences about the Ceremonial between the Ambaſſadors and the Governor of Rome, are fully ſettled to the Satisfaction of the former, who will now ſoon appear in Publick. The Venetian Gally commanded by Signior John Querini, was loſt near St. Vito by Ortona on the 13th Inſtant, and two Galleots of this Republick periſhed likewiſe by the ſame Storm, but the Men were ſaved.

Milan, June 25. N. S. On the Twenty-firſt Inſtant, Mareſchal Taun arrived here from Vienna, and the next Day ſet out for Turin, to confer with his Royal Highneſs, but is expected back in a few Days to diſpatch ſome Affairs before he takes the Field. The Duke of Savoy has put ſtrong Garriſons into Alexandria, Valencia, and other Places of the Milaneſe, yielded to him by his Treaty with the Emperor.

Hanover, July 1. N. S. The Miniſters of this Court have had a Conference with thoſe of the Duke of Wolfenbuttel at Borgdof, ſome Miles from hence, upon the preſent conjuncture of the Affairs of the Circle of Lower Saxony, concerning the intended Expedition of the King of Denmark againſt the Dutchy of Bremen. Baron Grote, the Elector's Miniſter, went by his Highneſs's Order to ſee the King at Colding and diſſuade him from that Deſign, but his Majeſty was gone to Holſtein before Monſieur Grote arrived: However it is not doubted but this Miniſter will continue his Journy, to acquit himſelf of his Commiſſion. Letters from Warſaw bring an account, that ſince the Palatin of Kiovia entred Poland, he has conſiderably augmented his Troops; and that the Staroſte Grudſinsky was advanced at the Head of Twelve thouſand Men to the River Waſta near Poſen, threatning to deſtroy all thoſe who ſhould refuſe to acknowledge King Staniſlaus, which caus'd great Conſternation in thoſe Parts, the rather becauſe the Army of the Crown continu'd unactive, as if they were in doubt what Part to take. Theſe unexpected Events have obliged the Czar to change the Deſign he had formed againſt Pomerania, and the Troops which he had appointed for that Service, are now to remain in Poland, to repreſs the Favourers of Staniſlaus, who are encouraged to diſcover their Inclinations to the Intereſts of that Prince, by the Aſſurances they have of the King of Sweden's ſpeedy return to his own Dominions, and the powerful Succours he will then ſend to their aſſiſtance.

Extract of a Letter from Capt. Blinſton, Commander of Her Majeſty's Ship Lynn, dated on Board her at Gibralter-Bay the 12*th of* June, 1712.

On the 14th of April I was, with Vice-Admiral Baker's Orders, to ſail with Her Majeſty's Ship Lynn, joined by Capt. Feild of the Ludlow-Caſtle, to ſee the Trade into O-Porto and Viana; in performing which Service, I took a ſmall Ship laden with Canary and Snuff; the Weather was ſuch as ſprung the Ludlow's Mizon-Maſt, and ſplit moſt of her Sails, which obliged me to put into Lisbon to Refit, where I made little ſtay, but proceeded with the two Ships to Gibralter, where I join'd the Royal Anne Galley and Port Mahon with four Ships. I on the 10th Inſtant got ſight of ſeven Sail of Ships, five Gavilans and two Cettees, off Eſtonopa; the Royal Anne Galley I ſent to ſtretch to Weſtward, to prevent any getting out of the Streights: Four ſhe forced into Suta Road under their Cannon, and the others weather'd him and got away. The Port-Mahon I ſent to Eaſtward, and with the Lynn and Ludlow-Caſtle I ſtood to the Northward, and forc'd into Eſtonopa Road three Martineco Ships, a Cettee and Gavilan, and a Spaniſh Man of War, carrying Thirty ſix Guns, Two hundred and fifty Seamen, and One hundred Soldiers, deſigned for Cadiz. The Ludlow-Caſtle weather'd the Man of War, who, to avoid her Boarding him, cut his Cable and run a-ſhore: all which Ships I in the Morning Summon'd the Governor to deliver me up, which I readily believed would have been done, had not Colonel Forbes (who commanded the Man of War) vigorouſly oppoſed it; but after eight Hours Cannonading them with our other four Ships, the Man of War and the Cette her Prize, and one Martineco Man, they ſet on Fire, another we ſunk, who with the ſwift of the Sea turn'd bottom up: In the Morning I again ſumoned the Governor to deliver me the Ships and Gavalan left undeſtroy'd in the Road: Having found it not practicable to burn or bring away the ſame in the Night, the Shore being lined with Horſe and Foot to prevent the ſame; by the return of my Summons, I found the Ships to be ſunk, and turned bottom up: The Gavalan laden with Rusk and Tiles, they fired, whoſe Cable burning, ſhe drove aſhore, and bulged on the Beach. Our Damages were little: The Port Mahon loſt one Man; three wounded ſlightly in the Royal Anne Gally, and ſome ſmall Damage, received in our Rigging.

The Commiſſioners appointed by Act of Parliament to take, examine and determine the Debts due to the Army, Tranſport Service, and Sick and Wounded, do hereby give Notice to all Perſons concerned in making up the Accounts of the ſaid Debts, That they do ſit at their Office in Eſſex-ſtreet, for putting the ſaid Act in Execution.

Notice is hereby given that ſuch Perſons whoſe Tickets in the Adventure of Two Millions for the Year 1711. were Chequ'd and Regiſter'd at the Office of the Comptroller of the ſaid Adventure, between the firſt of April, 1712. and the 16*th of June incluſive, may, at the ſaid Office in the Exchequer, between the Hours of Eight and One in the Forenoon, receive ſtanding Orders in lieu thereof, and the Paymaſter will at the ſame time pay ſix Months Intereſt, due Lady-day laſt: All Perſons alſo whoſe Tickets were Chequ'd and Regiſter'd in the Month of March, and have not yet exchanged the ſame, are deſir'd to bring their ſaid Tickets and receive their Orders and Intereſt: And thoſe who have not brought their Tickets to be Chequ'd and Regiſter'd, may, bring the ſame between the Hours aforeſaid, and Attendance will be given for their Diſpatch.*

Notice is hereby given, by his Grace the Duke of Leeds, Governour of the Company of Mine-Adventurers of England, That on Wedneſday the 9th of this Inſtant July, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon,
